Prior Art Citation

- 1. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Nakane (6,337,839) discloses an optical disk apparatus having the information recorded on the disk by different orientation.

Reasons For Allowance

- 2. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

The prior art of record alone or in combination does not teach or suggest the disk medium, apparatus and method having the combination of elements and steps, with their recited structure, arrangement and process, along with: having the information recorded on medium such that the direction along which the first information is formed on the medium is opposite to the direction along which the second information is recorded on the medium, as set forth in claims 1-8; having the rotation direction during reproduction of the medium being different from the rotation direction during reproduction of the recordable disk, as set forth in claims 9-13; and identifying the reproduction-only disk and the recordable disk according to the polarity of the integrated tracking error signal, or the first signal as set forth in claims 14-17, and as disclosed in the specification.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the Issue Fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
